Report on the Administration of the Dungarpur State for the Samvat year 1984-85 (Bikrami) corresponding with 1927-28.

PART I.

General.

1. The State of Dungarpur lies in the South of Rajputana, stretching over an area of 1447 square miles and situated between $23^{\circ}20'$ and $24^{\circ}1'$ North Latitude and $73^{\circ}22'$ and $74^{\circ}23'$ East Longitude. It is bounded on the North by Mewar, on the West by Idar, on the South by Lunawara, Kadana and Sant, and on the East by Banswara. The distinguishing physical features of the country are its low ranges of hills overgrown with scrub jungle and drained by the Mahi with its feeder the Som, the Majam, the Vatrak, the Bhadar, the Moran, the Gangli, the Sapan and the Vari Ganga. The population numbers 1,89,272 souls according to the last Census.

General and Physical.

2. The Capital is called after the name of the State and is a very different town from what it used to be some twenty years ago. Electric light and Waterworks have been introduced and the Sanitation improvement scheme is under consideration, which is of course a question of time.

Capital.

3. No railway traverses any part of the State. The nearest Railway Stations are Udaipur and Talod 67 and 72 miles respectively from the Capital. There are metalled roads within the Municipal Limits of the Dungarpur town. The fair weather roads, which are maintained in a good state of repairs for wheeled traffic, diverge from the Capital to —

Communications.

- (a) Kherwara on the Udaipur line,
- (b) Sagwara and Bhiloda on the Banswara line,
- (c) Galiakot and Bargama on the Godhra line,
- (d) Mewara on the Modasa and Talod line,
- (e) Aspur upto Nithawa on the Mewar and Partabgarh border.

In addition to the above fair weather roads, which are gradually being improved, there are numerous village paths for wheeled traffic of every description. Endeavours are being made to improve the means of communication and before long it is hoped that motor services will be running in most parts of the State.

4. Dungarpur, Sagwara and Galiakot are served by combined Post and telegraph offices and Sabla, Bankora and Aspur by departmental offices. There is a State mail service to Ganeshpur, Dhambola and Kanba. The extension of postal facilities by opening new post offices in the interior of the State is under consideration of the postal authorities.

Post and telegraphic facilities.

5. The principal fairs in the State are —

Fairs.

- (a) Benishwarji Mela, held at the confluence of the Mahi and the Som rivers and attended by a large number of devout Hindus.

(b) Pir Fakhruddin Mela at Galiakot, to which come members of the Bohra community from distant places.

(c) Shri Bijaya Mela at Dungarpur, the Capital, held in memory of His late Highness. People from adjoining villages and territories come in large numbers and an exhibition of arts and agriculture is held during the period of the fair.

6. The Ruling family represents the Senior Branch of the Sisodiya Clan of Rajputs.

His Highness Rai Rayan Maharajadhiraj Maharawal Shri Lakshman Singhji Bahadur after finishing his studies at the Mayo College paid a visit to Europe in 192 to widen his out-look of worldly affairs. His Highness was accompanied by Lt.-Col. R.A.E. Benn, C.I.E., I.A., an officer of marked experience whose guidance was of great help.

Maharaj Virbhadr Singhji is studying at Oxford, Maharaj Nagendra Singhji at the Mayo College, Ajmer, and Maharaj Pradyumna Singhji at the Capital. Raj Shri Baijilal Sahiba is receiving her education at home from a European Lady teacher.

7. The important events of the year were :—

(1) A daughter was born to His Highness on the 16th January, 1928, from Her Highness the Maharaniji Sahiba Shri Biswanji.

(2) His Highness was invested with full Ruling powers on the 16th February, 1928.

The Hon'ble Mr. L. W. Reynolds C.I.E., M.C., I.C.S. the Agent to the Governor-General in Rajputana visited Dungarpur from 15th to 17th February, 1928, and invested His Highness with full Ruling Powers.

On the 16th at 4-30 p.m. after the ceremonial, Mr. Reynolds made the following speech :—

YOUR HIGHNESS,

It is a great pleasure to me to be present today to invest Your Highness with full Ruling Powers over your State of Dungarpur.

More than nine years have elapsed since the death of Your Highness' lamented father His Highness Sir Bijaya Singh Bahadur, K.C.I.E., and during your minority the administration has been conducted under the supervision of the Political Agent in accordance with his wishes.

Now that the hour has come for Your Highness personally to assume the reigns of Government, it will not be out of place if I give a brief account of our stewardship.

Substantial progress has been made, I am glad to say, in all directions. The land revenue settlement has been revised, and a permanent enhancement in the land revenue of over a forty thousand has resulted. The revenue from Customs and Forests also show a substantial increase. Water works are nearing completion which will furnish a pure and plentiful

Ruling Family.

Important events,

supply of water for the benefit of the city of Dungarpur, which previously had to depend on a precarious and contaminated source the Gaibsagar. The money laid out on this project and the Electric Installation would be well spent, if it brought in little or no return, but I understand that from these two projects a permanent revenue of rupees twenty thousand will ultimately be derived representing a return of twelve per cent on the capital outlay. The permanent revenue of the State has been increased by nearly a lac of rupees a year, while a reserve of three lacs has been accumulated.

While the finances of the State have been prudently administered measures for the welfare and advancement of the people have not been neglected. In addition to the material benefits which they derive from the water supply and the electric installation to which I have already referred they have a model institution in the Dungarpur Hospital and two other dispensaries in outlying parts. Educational facilities have been increased by raising the Pinhev School to the Status of a High School, and by the addition of a boarding house for Rajput boys. The administration of the Jail has been improved; a State printing Press has been started. Crime has diminished, and the Bhils of the State on the whole are settled and contented. These results are I think entirely satisfactory. Much credit is due to Her Highness the Maji Sahiba, who has throughout taken the keenest interest in the progress of the State and whose advice has been of the greatest value. I wish also to take this opportunity of acknowledging the good services of those officers who during Your Highness' minority have held the appointment of Diwan. Your Highness thus starts on your career under most favourable conditions. You are young, with, I hope, a long life before you. You have had an excellent education at the Mayo College under an able and experienced guardian, Mr. Fanshawe and your career there, I am glad to say, was full of promise for the future. Further you have recently had the advantage of a tour in England which cannot fail to broaden your outlook and strengthen your ideals. Above all you have before you to inspire and guide you the example of your distinguished father. A wise and sympathetic ruler, he displayed the greatest consideration for the interests of his subjects and the liberal reforms which he introduced evinced his anxiety to equip his State to meet the requirements of a changing and progressive age. He had his reward in the wide popularity which he enjoyed with all his subjects.

I trust that Your Highness will set these ideals firmly before you and that you will not falter in the determination to place the happiness of your subjects above your own ease or pleasure. Care for the welfare of his subjects is the first duty of a ruler and by your success or failure in this regard your achievement will be judged now and here in-after. It is my earnest hope and belief that you will hand down to posterity a name no less honoured and respected than that of your father His Highness Sir Bijaya Singh. I congratulate you and wish Your Highness a long and progressive rule.

In reply to Mr. Reynolds' speech His Highness spoke as follows :—

MR. REYNOLDS,

I cannot adequately thank you for the trouble you have taken in coming here as the representative of His Majesty the King Emperor to invest me formally with Ruling Powers

I am glad to avail myself of this opportunity of publicly assuring you that I fully realize the responsible nature of my position as the Ruler of the Dungarpur State.

I am determined to do my best for the good of my subjects and will do all I can to improve their lot. The prosperity of the State depends on the prosperity and happiness of its subjects and it will indeed, be a pleasure to me to improve their condition and to watch their interests.

My illustrious father, His late Highness Sir Bijaya Singhji Bahadur K.C.I.E., with his instinctive generosity and regard for the well being of his people, started a Legislative and Executive Council to which Jagirdars, members of mercantile and other communities and State officials are properly represented. They are there to watch the interests of the various communities and their joint deliberations are helpful in arriving at Judicial decisions and in shaping State policies. My illustrious father also introduced the system of election in the Municipality. I wish to follow in his foot-steps.

The State owes a lot to Her Highness the Senior Maji Sahiba, my mother, who has looked after the State with admirable prudence and determination. This example of a lady having a hand in the administration of my State is unique and will go down as the one of its kind in the annals of Dungarpur History.

I desire also to express my sincere thanks to the various Political Officers, who have been in charge of the minority administration from time to time, especially to my esteemed friends Col. Ogilvie and Mr. Mackenzie, for the personal interest they have taken in the affairs of my State. The State has been placed on a sound footing on account of their efforts. I have also to thank Rai Sahib Kishen Nand Joshi, who has been Diwan for nearly two years and has done a great deal towards the improvement of the finance and general condition of the State. The State Officers have also worked loyally.

I also desire to express my sincere thanks to Mr. Leslie Jones and Mr. Fanshawe for the special interest they took in my education at Mayo College. My thanks are also due to Col. Benn for accompanying me to England.

I may mention now that my ancestors have always been forward in their loyalty towards the Imperial Government and during the great War my illustrious father offered his personal services in the field and did all he could to depute men on garrison duty, in addition to horses and motors and aeroplanes. He also subscribed liberally towards the War Fund and the War Loan.

With this example before me I can fully assure you that I shall consider it as my great privilege were I to be called upon to serve His Majesty the King in any capacity and at any time.

I must also thank my guests, who have taken the trouble to come so far.

In conclusion, I ask you, Mr. Reynolds, kindly to convey to His Excellency the Viceroy and through him to the King Emperor my deep sense of gratitude and loyalty to the Throne and Person of His Majesty.

I consider myself specially fortunate in being invested with Ruling Powers by you, Mr. Reynolds, whose long association with the Rajputana States and whose distinguished career as a just and sympathetic officer, has endeared you to all of us.

After distribution of Itr and Pán the Darbar adjourned.

In the evening of the 16th February, 1928, a State banquet was held at the Palace and short speeches were made both by His Highness and the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor-General.

The evening was marked with a splendid display of fire-works, illuminations and a Bhil dance.

Among the principal guests that visited Dungarpur on the occasion were:—

Mr. D. G. Mackenzie I.C.S., Political Agent, Southern Rajputana States, after holding office with great credit to himself and to the administration for nearly two years was transferred on 1st February, 1928, and was succeeded by Lt.-Col. C. H. Gabriel C.V.O., I.A., who was soon after relieved by Lt.-Col. D. M. Field I.A., Resident in Mewar, who held combined charge.

Rai Sahib Pandit Kishen Nand Joshi, Diwan, retired from State service in May, 1928, and it may not perhaps be out of place to mention here that the State has lost in him a man of outstanding ability. Mr. H. V. Joshi B Sc., M.A. who was in the service of the Dhar Darbar for about 13 years and was associated with the Mayo College for 10 years was appointed Diwan instead in September 1928, the duties of the Diwan were carried out by Mr. Murlidhar Bhargava, a minister of considerable experience who has served the State for nearly 25 years.

The increase was mainly under heads "Oil and oil seeds" and "Grain" which is due to the export of these commodities, which produced in greater abundance and brought in an increase of Rs. 20,000 and Rs. 20,000 respectively over the receipts of the last year. But there was a fall of Rs. 29,000 under head "Ghee" partly on account of there being no stock of ghee with the people and partly to there being no demand in foreign markets on account of the introduction of cheap vegetable ghee.

Banjaras

4. The Banjaras move about with a large number of cattle and are considered responsible for several cases of cattle thefts and damage to the crops.
